DEAR _____,

Thank you for purchasing books by JG Bennett. A portion of all proceeds from sales of books by Bennett are returned to the JG Bennett Publishing Fund described here:

John Bennett left a legacy of selfless giving and unrelenting inquiry into the mystery and meaning of life. He was a seeker, a risk-taker, and an opener-of-the-way for others. His works and life reveal nothing less than one who gave all to discover "what is."

We have a concern for the future of JG Bennett's literary legacy and are working to keep it available; and with this letter we are asking for contributions to our "permanent self-renewing fund" dedicated to this end.

Fund Description

A separate deposit account tracks all contributions and withdrawals. The fund is used exclusively for production and printing costs for new and out-of-print JG Bennett titles. (See below.) When a book is sold, an amount equal to the production and printing costs for that book is returned to the fund. In this way, your donation is continuously replenishing the JG Bennett Publishing Fund.

Titles published with the Fund

- in 2004 The First Liberation--Theme Talks 1-5
- in 2005 Transformation
- in 2006 Sunday Talks at Coombe Springs
The Way to be Free
- in 2007 Sex and Spiritual Development; Talks on Beelzebub's Tales
Enneagram Studies; Witness-The Story of a Search
- in 2008 Idiots in Paris
- in 2009 Existence

Future & Present Needs

At present, there are over thirty JG Bennett titles in print, two titles are out-of-print and there are several unpublished collections of writings. In the coming year, two more titles will go out-of-print and be in need of funds for reprinting.

Summary of the fund's activity since October 2002

Total number of books printed or re-printed: 10
 Contributions to the fund since October 2002: $26,201
 Expenditures for reprinting out-of-print and/or publishing new books: ($29,390)
 Reinvestment to fund from sales of books published with fund: $5,652
 Fund Balance as of December 31, 2009: $2,463

The fund's goal is to receive $85,000 in contributions, which, when reached, will guarantee that all JG Bennett titles, both those in print and proposed, will remain in print and be continuously re-printed.

How to Contribute

Please make checks payable to: "JG Bennett Publishing Fund." Contributions by credit card (MC or VISA) can also be made at www.bennettbooks.org. Your contribution will be acknowledged by letter. Periodically, a financial statement for the fund, without contributor names, will be sent to all contributors.

Thank you. We sincerely appreciate your help. With good wishes,
